UPDATE TO THE MEMBERSHIP
FROM THE PVSBC BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

We want to continue to update you about the progress being made by the PVSBC Board of Directors following a meeting held on July 25, 2018.

With change comes opportunity and since we have been presented with change, we took the time to consider the potential for PVSBC. We discussed options ranging from winding up operations, partnering with another organization or building upon the existing operation.

Our inclination is to continue and strengthen the existing organization. To do that, the first focus will be on refining our priorities. We are open to making changes to where, when and how the operation delivers its services and to the option of partnering with other organizations in the future. In order to search for the best people to help us achieve our goals, we must be clear about we need.

To that end, we would appreciate hearing from YOU, the membership throughout August.

- What would you like to see as the top five goals for PVSBC?
- What are you hoping to see more of? Or less of?

Let us know your thoughts as the Board of Directors looks towards the future. Please connect with your PVSBC regional representative or any of the board members listed below. If you are not sure who your regional representative is, please email Deidre Moran djmoran@telus.net who is assisting us through this process.

As well as determining key priorities, we will look to engage a recruitment specialist to support our quest to secure new staff for PVSBC.

In the meantime, Carolyn Sinclair continues to support PVSBC at the office and with transferring knowledge to the Board of Directors and Deidre Moran until the end of August.

Your current Board of Directors are listed below. We are pleased to welcome Jessica Johnson as the Lower Mainland representative. Please consider filling one of the vacancies to help make the organization the best it can be.
