PVSBC Membership

Police Victim Services of British Columbia is a non-profit and charitable organization established to support Police-based Victim Service Programs throughout BC. The organization is governed by a board comprised of its members.

The Board of Directors is focused on renewal and engagement with its membership so that it can actively represent and advocate for Police-based Victim Service Programs.

Your membership and engagement is critical to the overall success of Police-based Victim Services in BC.

Membership Benefits

PVSBC Board members are committed to representing your interests with the Province of BC, Police agencies and providing direction and guidance to the Executive Director. The board determined that it would focus on strengthening the organization and anticipates delivering a learning and liaison meeting in 2019. We see the benefits for 2019 as follows:

- An energized Board committed to representing Police-based Victim Service Programs with the Province of BC and police operations throughout the Province, and revitalizing the organization
- Access to toll free teleconferencing to keep connected with your colleagues
- Access to the 2019 PVSBC Toolkit which provides resources to supplement local community resources
- As a member you can be a representative on the Board of Directors
- Attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting as well as have a voice in the priorities for PVSBC
- Receive national and international updates on issues and bulletins pertaining to the industry and profession of Victim Services
- Access to the "Members Only" section of the PVSBC website www.policievictimservices.bc.ca
- Access to PVSBC publications, resource and special project updates
- Volunteer Death and Dismemberment Insurance

Membership Fees

Membership fees are determined by the membership at each Annual General Meeting.

There have been no change to the rates for years however, each year the fees collected contribute to the overall operation of PVSBC.

The fees are: as follows:

Type	Fee
